EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

- a) Cancel non-elected claims 10-14.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: US publication 2004/0098827 discloses an air separation and dirt collection device comprising an elongated container 51 having a cylindrical sidewall with an open top and a closed bottom that is openable for emptying collected dirt, a tangential inlet 53 formed in an upper portion of the sidewall, a cylindrical main body 51 which is equivalent to the claimed shroud, a filter holder assembly 92, the shroud having an open sidewall 72, and closed bottom 73, an inverted frusto-conical transition portion 51b. The claims specify that the an inverted frusto-conical transition portion extending from the upper portion of the shroud to the filter holder portion extending from the upper portion of the container sidewall and being open to passage of air (see figure 2, element 49). Figure 4 of the US prior art publication shows the filter holder portion 92 to be nested within the upper sidewall of the container 51, not extending above as claimed. Further, the shroud 51b is not combined with the filter holder assembly 92, as claimed.

Art Unit: 1744

Absent hindsight of applicants disclosure there is no suggestion within the prior art to modify the US 2004/0098827 publication to meet the claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The remaining US references are considered to be generally related to the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
